

2008 Educational Seminars General Information

SYSCO and the California Restaurant Association Educational Foundation (CRAEF) thank you for your interest in our seminars. There are a few important things to keep in mind when signing up for a seminar.

- 1) Class space is limited, and you must register and pay in advance. In order to receive the discounted price for SYSCO customers you must complete this form and return it to the CRAEF. SYSCO customers who register on the California Restaurant Association Web site will not be eligible to take advantage of the discounted prices.
- 2) Occasionally classes may be cancelled due to lack of registration. Registrants will be notified at least one week in advance and will not be charged a fee to reschedule.
- 3) There is a $50 fee for cancellations, no-shows and class date transfers initiated by the attendee.
- 4) No refunds will be issued, however all registration fees are transferable to another date or employee.

The ServSafe® Food Protection Manager Certification Course is the most comprehensive Foodservice sanitation program available. and is accepted as the national standard by over 95 percent of all state and local jurisdictions. Certificates are now valid for five years in California.

The ServSafe Alcohol® Responsible Beverage Service Training program was developed with input from experts in the restaurant, legal, regulatory, academic, insurance, medical and law enforcement fields. Together, they determined the tasks that the front-of-the-house needs to know to serve alcohol responsibly. This program is approved by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control. Certification is valid for two years in California.
